

QUANTIFIERS AND DETERMINERS

CONTABLE NOUNS	INCONTABLE NOUNS
A saxophone / An alarm clock Some drills Any hairdryers A lot of MP4 players A few guitars	Some work Any music A lot of noise A little money

EXERCISES

1) Choose the correct answer:

- a) You should invite a little / a lot of guests to the party, because usually a few / a little people can't come.
- b) You need a little / a few eggs and a few / a lot of flour and sugar to make this cake.
- c) Most of us want a lot of / a little olives on our pizza, but a few / a little guests prefer a few / a lot of corn on theirs. So I'll order a pizza with corn, too.
- d) Right now, only a few / a little people are dancing. Many / much guests have already left. There isn't many / much cake and pizza on the table, but there are a little / a lot of dishes in the wash.